

Please get off XM Radio's back. I consider their service to be indispensable to my daily life, and I can't imagine having to do without it. All of the services they offer, including local traffic, are very beneficial. I see no reason as to why XM can't provide the same services as any other cable TV service or satellite TV service.

--Marc Wielage
Chatsworth, CA